1.5 & 1.6 Armed Forces

You may be eligible for support to study a distance learning course outside of Wales if you or your family member (who you live with) is currently serving outside Wales in one of the following:

- The Naval Service (Royal Navy and Royal Marines)
- The Army
- The Royal Air Force
- The Royal Military Police
- The Gurkhas
- The following family members will be eligible students:
 - A spouse or civil partner living with a member of the UK Armed Forces serving outside Wales
 - A child, step-child or adoptive child living with a member of the UK Armed Forces serving outside Wales
 - A dependent parent living with either;
 - A child who is a member of the UK Armed Forces serving outside Wales
 - The child's spouse or civil partner who is a member of the UK Armed Forces serving outside Wales.

If you are in the Armed Forces

You need to send a letter confirming your name, your address (or BFPO address) and which country you were ordinarily resident in before you were based at your current location. It must also confirm the country you're currently based in.

If your family member is in the Armed Forces, you need to send a letter confirming the following:

- their name
- their address (or BFPO address)
- your name
- their relationship to you
- if they're based overseas or in the UK but outside Wales
- if you have been ordinarily resident in the UK, which country they were ordinarily resident in before they were based at their current location
- if you've never been ordinarily resident in the UK, which country they signed up for the Armed Forces in

The letter you send must be signed, stamped and dated by the Armed Forces Unit Records Office.

2 About your university or college and course

2.1 Tuition Fee amount charged

If you're not sure how much you're being charged for tuition fees, speak to your university or college to find out. You must specify an amount for your form to be accepted.

2.6 Erasmus

If you are undertaking a placement as part of the Turing Scheme or the Erasmus+ programme, you won't be eligible for tuition fees.

3 Your loan request

3.1 Loan payments

We'll pay your Tuition Fee Loan directly to your university or college in three instalments within the academic year. Each instalment of your Tuition Fee Loan will be paid after we receive confirmation from your university or college that you're in attendance on your course.

The maximum loan you can borrow depends on where you're studying.

Loan liability

You'll be liable for your Tuition Fee Loan 2 weeks after the first day of term 1, and at the start of terms 2 and 3, not the dates the instalments are paid to your university or college.

Liability	% of total Tuition Fee Loan that you'll be liable for
Term 1	25%
Term 2	50%
Term 3	100%

Interest

Interest is added to your loan balance from the day the first loan payment is made to your university or college. You can find out more about this and the current interest rate at www.gov.uk/repaying-your-student-loan

Changing your loan amount

You can change the amount of loan you originally requested by completing a Tuition Fee Loan Request form. The Tuition Fee Loan Request form is available to download at www.studentfinancewales.co.uk or call us on 0300 200 4050 to request a copy.

Your partner is defined as follows:

- your husband/wife
- your civil partner
- your opposite sex partner if you live with your partner as though you were married or
- your same sex partner if you live with your partner as though you were in a civil partnership.

If you've entered into an overseas civil partnership or an equivalent legal relationship with a same sex partner, we will contact you to let you know whether this will be recognised for student finance purposes.

Separated, divorced or dissolved civil partnership

You need to send:

- Decree Absolute or
 - Dissolution order or
 - A final or conditional order or
 - A letter from your solicitor confirming your status
- Original death certificate

Widowed or surviving civil partner

5 Financial details

5.1 State benefits

If you're not married or in a civil partnership, but are living with a partner, we'll take your partner's income into account, if you have a partner as explained at 6.1 of these notes.

If your husband, wife, civil partner or partner wishes to provide income information separately they can download a copy of this form at www.studentfinancewales.co.uk or call us on 0300 200 4050 to request a copy.

You need to send:

- a photocopy of the original document you received from the agency or authority telling you about the benefit, or

5 Financial details – continued

5.2 Gross income from salary or wages

Your gross income means income before deductions from:

- salary/wages
- overtime
- bonuses and/or
- commission.

We require these figures for tax year 2022/23, normally this will be the year ending 5 April 2023, but this may differ if your employer or business has a tax year which doesn't end in April, or you start your course in July.

Also include any income you received in 2022/23 from employment overseas or any other income you get from abroad which is not covered by UK tax as well as any of the benefits asked for.

Don't include any of the following:

- any personal tax relief
- payments under covenant or
- non-taxable income.

Evidence of your earnings can be:

- a photocopy of P60 for 2022-23

or

- photocopies of payslips for month 12 or week 53 showing 'Total paid to date' for earnings in the period 6 April 2022 to 5 April 2023 or
- a signed letter from your employer confirming your earnings. The letter should be on company headed paper and also confirm your tax code or
- a statement of earnings from HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) and/or
- written details of all benefits in kind you receive.

5.3 Income from self-employment

Give the details shown on your self-assessment form for your trading year which ends during the period from 6 April 2022 to 5 April 2023.

If you can't give us the amounts, you should give an estimate and write 'E' beside the amount on the form.

Evidence of your income from self employment can be:

- a photocopy of your self assessed tax return or
- a letter from your accountant confirming your income

If you're a company director send:

- a photocopy of your P60 and/or
- a photocopy of your P11D or
- independent confirmation of your earnings and directors fees from a chartered or certified accountant or HMRC.

5.4 Bank and building society gross interest

You only need to send evidence for bank/building society gross interest if it's the only source of household income.

Evidence of your income from bank/building society gross interest can be:

- bank or building society statements

5.5 Other investment income

You only need to send evidence of income from other investments if it's the only source of household income

Evidence of your income from other investments can be:

5.6 Income from property lettings or rent

Evidence of your income from property, lettings or rent can be:

- a photocopy of your self assessed tax return or
- a letter from your accountant confirming your income

5.6.1 Rent a Room scheme

We need to know how much of your income from property, lettings or rent is through the Rent a Room scheme as any income from this scheme up to £7,500 per year is tax-free. This means any income from the Rent a Room scheme under this threshold won't count as income for your student finance assessment.

- a photocopy of your self assessed tax return or
- a letter from your accountant

5.7 Other income types

Include here any other income you've received, for example:

- scholarships, studentships, exhibitions, bursaries, awards, grants and allowances not already given previously
- other payments you receive for attending your course during the academic year
- any payments from an employer releasing you for your study during the academic year.
- any salary or wages that you'll receive from your employer while you're studying for your course. This includes work you finish before the course begins, or work you're paid for in advance which you'll do after your course ends
- redundancy payments or compensation for loss of job. You must include the full amount of your redundancy payment, even if you don't expect to pay tax on it.
- fostering or boarding-out allowances where these are regular payments that foster carers receive to meet the cost of keeping a child or
- for taxable benefits in kind please send your P11D.

If you pay any portion of a pension to a former partner due to an order made under the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973 or the Civil Partnership Act 2004, don't include this amount as part of your pension income. If you receive any portion of a former partner's pension due to an order made under the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973 or the Civil Partnership Act 2004, you must include this amount as part of your pension income.

5.7 Other income types

If you've declared any other income types, you need to send us photocopies of evidence to confirm the total amount received during the 2022-23 tax year.

5.8 Dependent children

You must include any income the child receives from working, from interest earned on savings, from investments and from any maintenance payments you expect to receive for your children as part of their income in this question.

Don't include income from sources such as Child Benefit, Child Tax Credit, child element of Universal Credit, Government Child Trust or minimal sums of money from other sources when entering a child dependant's income.

You need to send:

- your child's/children's original birth certificate(s) and
- photocopies of evidence showing the child's income from all sources after tax and social security contributions in tax year 2021-22.

7 Terms and Conditions

Power of Attorney

If you can't sign the form it must be signed on your behalf by your attorney. To grant a person Power of Attorney, you need to fill in a legal form giving their name, the specific period for which they can act on your behalf, and the specific tasks that they can perform. The Power of Attorney letter must be sent with the application before a signature from that attorney will be accepted.
